CHINA SEVERS DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH GERMANY

POSSESSION TAKEN OF INTERNED SHIPS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—China has severed diplomatic relations with Germany and taken possession of six German ships in Shanghai harbor, according to advices from American naval officers in Chinese waters.

WAR SUMMARY

Another great retreat by the Germans on the Somme front is in progress. The consequent advance has brought the British to the ridge west of Bapaume, where the Germans have abandoned their main defensive work on a front of three and one-half miles. The speedy fall of Bapaume is probable.

German military writers, who announce that von Hindenburg is directing operations on the western front, see in the retreat a strategic movement to draw the British into the open as much as they did the Russians in East Prussia.

Paris writers say if the German retreat is begun to disconcert the British, it is frustrated by British tactics. The British have forced the Germans to continue the withdrawal by following with superior artillery fire instead of going after them with cavalry.

The French have captured Romainville farm in St. Michael salient.

BROTHERHOODS AGREE NOT TO STRIKE UNTIL ADAMSON DECISION

NEW YORK, March 14.—While brotherhood chiefs discussed the final plans for the threatened strike with union leaders of the eastern territory, representatives of the railway managers made public what they said was an agreement not to strike until the Supreme Court had decided the Adamson law. The promise is said to have been made at a secret meeting held in Chicago in January. The brotherhood men refused to talk.

The boys were in charge of Benford Deacon, circulation manager for the News, who saw to it that the boys were orderly and well behaved, curbing any undue exhibition of youthful spirits. Through Mr. Deacon, the boys desire to express to the management of the company their appreciation of the invitation and their enjoyment of the performance.

PROUDFOOT ASKED TO SURRENDER CONTRACT FOR DELAND HIGHWAY

The board of court commissioners in session at Deland Tuesday adopted a resolution asking F. G. Proudfoot to surrender his contract for building the east section of the Deland-Daytona road. The resolution was based on an unfavorable report from the good roads department of the United States government on the construction of the road from asphaltic concrete blocks of a thickness of two inches. This report followed closely on an unfavorable report from the State good roads engineer.

Mr. Proudfoot was present at the meeting and stated that he could not surrender the contract as he had already bought material. The county engineers were instructed not to set any stakes for the work and Mr. Proudfoot was ordered not to do any work until after the next meeting of the board.

A motion prevailed requesting the board's attorneys, Landis, Fish & Hull, to take steps to have the contract nullified.

PRESIDENT WILSON TAKES UP BUSINESS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—President Wilson has so nearly recovered from the cold that he worked in his study today. He is not expected to leave the White House, however, for several days.

A party of Manhattan residents are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Miss Etta Meyer, Miss Lulu Eggleston, Miss Louise Krief and Miss May I. Krief, who are guests at the Ridgewood hotel for a few days stay on a tour of Florida sight-seeing.

PRESIDENT EXPECTS NO STRIKE BY BROTHERHOODS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—President Wilson is amazed at the proposal of a nationwide strike at this juncture. It is stated authoritatively that he expects the railroads and brotherhoods to make every effort to agree at their conference tomorrow in New York because of the international situation. It is possible that he may appeal to both sides on that ground.

PROF. JONATHAN Y. STANTON

HAS ENJOYED VISIT HERE

Prof. Jonathan Y. Stanton, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cutten for the past two weeks at their home on South Palmetto avenue, will leave tomorrow on his return north, stopping en route at Savannah and Charleston and possibly other points. Prof. Stanton is a retired professor of Greek in Bates college, Lewiston, Maine, but still continues to teach ornithology. He is 83 years of age, but remarkably well preserved for a man of his years. His visit here has been a very pleasant one, owing in part to earlier association with Mr. and Mrs. Cutten both of whom were at one time his pupils in Bates college.

Late additions to the Ohio colony at the Princess Isabella are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rowland, of Toledo, who will be fortnight guests at the hotel.

LONDON, March 14.—The American steamer Algonquin, was sunk by a German submarine without warning March 12, according to a report from American Consul J. G. Stephens at Plymouth. All on board were saved. Consul Stephens reports Captain Norberg of the Algonquin as stating that his ship was sunk by shell fire. The steamer was submerged at 6:00 o'clock in the morning and the submarine refused assistance. Twenty-seven men have been landed.

Vessel Carried Foodstuffs.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The Algonquin, owned by the American Star Line, sailing from New York for London February 20, was submerged on March 12, according to a cablegram from the owners from Penzance, England. Where the sinking occurred is not mentioned.

Officers of the company said the Algonquin was a vessel of 1,806 tons and worth approximately $450,000. She carried a cargo mostly of foodstuffs worth more than $1,750,000.

Ten Americans were in the crew of the Algonquin, including Captain A. Norberg, a naturalized American of Norwegian birth.

The steamer was one of the first American vessels to sail after Germany announced her new submarine campaign. The Algonquin was expected to reach the submarine zone March 8, but it is assumed she went out of her course.

Later advices from Plymouth said the submarine opened fire at a distance of 4,000 yards, firing 20 shells. When the Algonquin did not sink submarine sailors boarded the vessel and blew her up with bombs. The crew was given time to leave.

Situation Probably Unchanged.
WASHINGTON, March 14.—An official view on the sinking of the Algonquin is withheld in the absence of official dispatches but it is the unofficial opinion that the incident does not change the German situation.

A black and white portrait of a woman, likely from the early 20th century. She is wearing a dark, textured hat with a large, dark bow on top. Her hair is pulled back, and she has a serious expression. She is wearing a dark dress with a prominent white collar. The portrait is set within an ornate, decorative frame that features floral and scrollwork motifs, particularly on the left and right sides. The overall style is characteristic of early 20th-century photography.

special scheme of color, for in some of the leading houses the sleeves are of a different tint from the garment; and when made in velvet or mouseline the effect is delightful. Black dresses and coats with gray sleeves are very pleasant variations for spring.

³There is no question that the narrow skirt is on its way to popular acceptance once more. Even in plaid models the straight line effect indicates this tendency. ANNA MAY.

Tapii furnishes the best food of all the animals in the Panama jungle, but it is also the most difficult animal to shoot or capture. It is called vaca de montana (mountain cow) by the natives, but in fact it resembles more a large pig with short legs, brown, short-haired hide, short ears, a stump tail and a prehensile lip. It has three toes on the hind feet and four on the front. It has a keen sense of hearing and of smell and any unusual presence in the jungle is detected at once. Its skull and breast are so strongly built that the densest jungle proves no bar to its progress. To shoot one the hunter must be quicker than with a deer, for the tapii has no curiosity and runs at the first hint of danger. At bay it fights with its forefeet, and no dog of the jungle will attack it. It is easily domesticated when taken young and grows to maturity without becoming savage.

Gebhard von Blücher was born in 1742 at Bostock, Prussia. At the age of fourteen he entered the Swedish army and four years later was captured by the Prussians in the Pomeranian campaign. His captors urged him to enter their service and he received a lieutenancy. Blücher first came into notice in the later battles of the Seven Years' war, under Frederick the Great. His coarse life of many excesses plunged him into disfavor, so he retired into private life. However, after 15 years of retirement he again entered the service on the death of the king and organized the Prussian army. His influence was more from his daring than brains, as he relied on others for strategy. After his participation at Waterloo he insisted on having Napoleon shot, but the logical Wellington prevented this. Blücher was seventy when Waterloo was fought and died four years after the battle in 1819.

It does not make much difference what instrument a song of the gods sings to, so long as it has his song, writes Hagar Stopping. The only bit his own reed by the river or flint and old violin in a bush, shop or place, church or organ, or pound the brass drum, or whisper through the station whistle—anything, so long as he chooses the right mood for his suffering or triumph or dancing words, the right music for the feeling that outruns them.

It is a strange fact that the turbulent and primitive land of Haiti should produce Alexander Exumas, the world's greatest writer of adventure stories, an artist of high attainments and a great personality. He was born in Haiti of native and white blood.

Of the world's production of copper it is estimated that 60 to 70 per cent is used in the electrical industry in normal times.

CASE WAS THOUGHT HOPELESS

Contracted Blood Poisoning While Performing an Operation—Most Remarkable Case Ever Treated in This Country.

New York.—Made a victim of septicaemia while performing a surgical operation two months ago, Dr. Albert Pitts of Plainfield, N. J., whose case was considered hopeless a few weeks later, has recovered completely as the result of undergoing nine operations for blood transfusion. Each operation was performed by Dr. Edward Lindeman of New York, who used a method of transfusion which he devised four years ago.

The recovery of the young surgeon is not only unusual, but physician says the case is one of the most remarkable of its kind ever treated in this country. After physicians had given up hope of recovery Doctor Lindeman was summoned to the Muhlenberg hospital, Plainfield, where Doctor Pitts was a patient.

Eight Quarts of Blood Furnished.

After a consultation it was decided that Doctor Lindemann begin his operations. Eight quarts of blood were furnished for the operations by Miss Constance Pittis and Betram Pittis, sister and brother of the patient, and four members of the local fire department.

Doctor Lindeman's method embodies the use of arterial syringes and eliminates the necessity of making an incision over the vein in either the donor or the recipient. By means of especially devised telescoping tubes of platinum he pierces the vein, making a hole about the size of an ordinary needle point. This primary hole is then dilated until of such size as to permit an unobstructed flow.

Forty-eight hours after the first transfusion Doctor Pittis showed improvement, although he still was unconscious, as he had been for some time. Consciousness returned to the patient after several operations two weeks later, but his mind was not yet clear. Doctor Pittis readily responded to the treatment and finally his temperature became normal and his mind clear.

Pricks Skin While Operating.

The poison, which had circulated through the whole body, was exactly like that of the patient Doctor Pitt had been operating on when he became infected. Doctor Pitt's poison had been suffering from suppuration, too, and while using his instrument the skin between his fingers was pricked. The condition of the patient soon became so alarming that Doctor Pitt went to the Philadelphia Hospital for treatment. It was said that when he first underwent treatment by the Lindeman method he was closer to death than any other patient who has been operated on by Doctor Lindeman for the same disease and who had recovered.

Doctor Pittis has left the Muhlenberg hospital, after having been under Doctor Lindemann's treatment for a month. Fully recovered, he will be able to resume his practice as a surgeon at any time he wishes. However he is contemplating a trip to the South before going in for hard work. Most of his work is among the poor of Philadelphia, where he is surgeon at a dispensary.

Within the last two weeks Porto Pittis was compelled to undergo amputation of a finger on his right hand as the bone had become damaged by the use made by surgical instruments. Otherwise he is in normal condition.

TIERNEY TO RETURN TO CLARENDON WITH HOTEL MEN'S PARTY

After spending the past week at the Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Tierney of Binghamton, N. Y., left for Palm Beach where they will make a short stay.

Mr. Tierney, who has twice been president of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit association, is a prominent figure in New Jersey, being president of the Kennedy-Tierney company, owners of the Arlington hotel and vice-president of the National Hotel company, owners of three large hotels at Rochester, N. Y., Springfield, Mass., and Buffalo, N. Y. After a short stop at Palm Beach, Mr. Tierney expects to go to Richmond, Va., where he will join several members of the executive committee. The party will make a tour of the south in the interest of membership for the association and expect to come here the latter part of March. On his first trip to Florida, Mr. Tierney has only sincere praise for the resorts he has visited and foresees a big future for the state.

W. A. Paterson, of Flint, Mich., has joined his father-in-law, W. K. Hubbard, at the Clarendon for a stay of some length.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Jackson, of Philadelphia, Pa., who were incoming guests at the Clarendon Monday, will spend the remainder of the season in Seabreeze.

Mrs. G. H. Townsend, II, and Mrs. W. K. Townsend, of Bronxville, N. Y., who are motoring through Florida, are guests at the Clarendon for a several days stay en route down the coast.

Making a short stay at the Clarendon on their way to Palm Beach are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burk and Mrs. G. W. Whitman, of Philadelphia, who are traveling by automobile.

Mrs. Edward M. Hanrahan and daughter, Miss Hanrahan, of Binghamton, N. Y., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Johnson at their winter home in Seabreeze for the past few weeks, are guests at the Clarendon for the remainder of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baumgartner and Miss Marjorie Baumgartner of Detroit, Mich., have joined Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Baker at the Clarendon for a stay of some length.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gooding of Minneapolis, Minn., are late guests at the Clarendon, coming to join Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Welles and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gregory, who returned yesterday from the south, since their arrival at the hotel several weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. Welles have enjoyed a series of automobile trips to resorts south of Daytona.

The Detroit colony, one of the largest at the Clarendon, was augmented Monday by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wardell. The estate are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends at the resort.

Prominent guests at the Clarendon are Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hooper and daughter, Miss Frances Hooper, of Chicago, who arrived Monday. The Hoopers will spend several weeks at the hotel.

Paul H. Verkamp, of Cincinnati, Ohio, came up from Palm Beach Monday to spend the remainder of the month at the Clarendon. Mr. Verkamp has spent the month of March at the Clarendon for several years and is a popular figure in resort life.

Finding Seabreeze very delightful to leave, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Pratt of London, England, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Neal of New York, and Miss Murphy of New York City, who have had a suite at the hotel for the past several weeks, will prolong their stay. The party expected to leave today for the Breakers, but will remain at the Clarendon until after the St. Patrick's ball.

T. M. McQueen entertained informally at supper in the Clarendon grill Monday night after the hop in the ball room. Mr. McQueen's guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cornwall, Mrs. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald, Miss Shaw, Miss Rosenheim, W. D. Stark and Mr. Bailey.

Mrs. William T. Eakins, of Evansville, Ind., has joined Mrs. J. C. W. Kitch at the Clarendon for a several days stay, coming from the Eakins country place, one of the prettiest of the inland estates.

Everyone at the Clarendon was sorry to say goodbye to Mrs. Adolf Kneken, who left Monday for her home in Chicago. During Mrs. Kneken's stay at the hotel, she was one of the most active members of the resort, and during her stay at the hotel, and will be sorely missed.

D. L. Deane, of Annapolis, Md., and J. E. Kavanaugh, of Jacksonville, Fla., were among the Monday arrivals at the Clarendon. PRINCE PETER OF GREECE

Sun Shows Battle Scars.

Cortagena still shows many scars of battle, for she had a hard life of it in the past. As she was the principal stronghold of Spain, all Spain's enemies attacked her first when they moved on the Americas. English buccaniers sacked her half a dozen times. The English Admiral Vernon besieged the city unsuccessfully for months, but in spite of his poor success he inspired such admiration in a young colonial officer that the latter named an American country estate for the admiral. The officer was one Lawrence Washington, and he named the country house Mount Vernon.

Tommy's Politeness.

"Tommy," "Tommy, what did you say when Mr. Kneken gave you a penny?" "I don't know, mother. I was polite as I could be. I didn't say anything." —Tuck.

Friendship.

They who dare to ask anything of a friend, by their very request seem to imply that they would do anything for the sake of that friend.—Cicero.

Famous Portrait Painter.

The first portrait painter of the United States to win general fame was Thomas Sully, who was born 100 years ago. One of the first celebrated American historical paintings, "Washington Crossing the Delaware," was the product of his genius. Sully established himself in Richmond as a portrait painter in 1810, but soon removed to New York, and in 1819 to Philadelphia, which city was afterward his home. In addition to "Washington Crossing the Delaware," his famous historical paintings include "The Capture of Major Andre" and "Miranda." As a portrait painter his most notable subjects were Thomas Jefferson, Lafayette, James Madison, John Marshall, Fanny Kemble and Queen Victoria. He visited England to paint the king and queen in their coronation robes. Sully lived to an advanced age, dying in Philadelphia in 1872.

Convincing Argument.

One year when the youngsters of a certain Illinois village met for the purpose of electing a captain of their baseball team for the coming season it appeared that there was an excessive number of candidates for the post, with more than the usual wrangling. Youngster after youngster presented his qualifications for the post, and the matter was still undecided when the son of the owner of the ball field stood up. He was a small, snub-nosed lad, with a plentiful supply of freckles, but he glanced about him with a dignified air of controlling the situation. "I am going to be captain this year," he announced confidently, "for else father's old ball is going to be turned into the field." He was elected unanimously.

Throwing the Lariat.

Each Hispanic male child of the southwestern ranch just as soon as he is able to toddle into the vicinity of a decrepit duck or a sick kitten commences practice in roping. From his first efforts with his piece of string he continues through a graded series of puppy dogs, lambs, calves, yearlings, and so on, till, by the time he has arrived at man's estate, he can at hand-long gallop throw the biggest, wildest thing that wears hair, by neck, horns or feet and hogtie it down without help. In lieu of the time-honored orthodox crook, the sheep herder in the southwest has 40 feet of hempen rope, with a nice hoose adjustment, handy to him in a matter-of-course way, although he might be about to take a prominent part in a lynching drama.

Thief Shows Originality.

Thieves are not common in Alaska, but when one does appear he generally exhibits an originality of conduct difficult for less accomplished folk to comprehend. As an instance of this characteristic a thief broke into a store at Douglass recently and stole all the 1914 tags provided for licensed dogs, thus subjecting every canine in town to the danger of being taken up by the dog catcher.

WHEN THE HEN CACKLES

WHEN high prices in all foodstuffs prevail and a salaried man has about the same chances of making both ends meet, as the proverbial Snowball had for existence—then it is that old Mother Nature steps in takes a hand and puts one over on the Gobbling Trusts. It is a significant fact that a barnyard stocked with fowls is a mint and each hen a very important factor and justly deserves the prominence that she attains as she proudly struts about her domain with the arrogance of an imposter lord trying to make a show on dress parade.

STETSON GLEE CLUB TO SING THURSDAY

The 16 or 18 members of the Stetson Glee club will arrive from the county seat tomorrow afternoon and will give their program of song and melody at the Daytona Beach Methodist church in the evening.

The club has recently returned from a trip to Tampa and St. Petersburg where it sang before fine audiences. It has also been to Lake Helen, Sanford and other neighboring towns to DeLand.

The people of the peninsula are especially interested in the glee club because two of its members are well known here, being Arthur P. Moor and Herndon H. Bowen, former residents of Daytona Beach and pupils at the Seabreeze-Daytona Beach high school. Others of the members have friends here also.

After the evening of song, the club will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Drake on Live Oak street.

MISS FELL AND SCHOFIELD GIVE SPLENDID TALK

The Clarendon ball room last night was filled to capacity to hear the talk made by Miss Fell and Miss Schofield, lately of London, England, in the interest of the American organization, "The Fatherless Children of France." With graphic words, and an intimate knowledge of the subject only made possible by personal experiences in France, Miss Fell and Miss Schofield in turn pictured conditions existing among French children orphaned by the war. Both women have a rare gift of platform eloquence and the ability to bring home to their hearers the appeal of their subject. The splendid work of the organization, composed of American women and men was told of and their appeal for further funds to aid the work aroused in their hearers an enthusiastic desire to give to the cause.

Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. E. L. Potter, Mrs. James Loughlin, III, Mrs. A. A. McDonald, Mrs. H. M. Dingley and Mrs. J. E. Blaine. A trio of pretty girls of the Clarendon younger set, who were Miss Delta Boice, Miss Esther Hubbell and Miss Annette Tausig. They were assisted by Miss Marion Hillard, Miss Hildegard Courtney, Miss Julia McLaren, Miss Martha Davis, Miss Laura Johnson and Miss Louise Booth.

EX-SENATOR PASCO GOES TO REWARD

TAMPA, March 13. Ex-Senator Samuel Pasco died here tonight while on a visit to relatives and friends. He represented Florida in the upper house of congress for 12 years and was well known throughout the state. He has resided at Monticello for more than 50 years and interment will be at that place. Deceased is survived by his wife and three sons; Dr. James Pasco, of Jacksonville; John Pasco, of Monticello, and Sam Pasco, of Pensacola. Samuel Pasco was born at London, England, June 28, 1834, and was 83 years of age at the time of his death. His parents moved to Massachusetts when Samuel was quite young. He attained the A. B. degree at Harvard in 1858. 1859-61 he was principal of Waukegan academy. October 28, 1862, he was married to Miss Jessie Denham, of Monticello, who survives him. From 1866 to 1868 he was clerk of the circuit court of Jefferson county, but retired when admitted to the practice of law. During the Civil War he was a non-commissioned officer in the Confederate service.

Samuel Pasco was repeatedly honored by his people and deserved the respect which they gave him. His most notable public service was as speaker of the house of representatives of Florida, 1887, United States senator 1887-89 and member of the Isthmian Canal commission 1893-1904.

Practically he served as grand master of the Masons, 1870-2, grand master I. O. O. F. 1885, grand high priest Royal Arch Masons 1904, major general Florida division U. C. V. 1904-11, chairman Florida Chickasaw Monument commission, 1904-12, besides holding other minor positions of trust.

He served his country well as educator, warrior, lawyer and statesman and was urbane, kind and just in all his dealings which endeared him to the hearts of his people.

STATE SUN. SCHOOL SECRETARY IN CITY

General State Secretary of Sunday Schools R. E. Weidler is a pleasant Daytona visitor, coming from Jacksonville to confer with County Superintendent E. H. Shoemaker in an endeavor to set the next annual convention of state Sunday schools to come to Daytona.

Mr. Weidler said to a News reporter that two other cities, Orlando and Kissimmee, have put in their bid for the convention but that neither of them have the full backing of their chapters of churches and all churches as in their cities. The convention, which was held last year in Lakeland, brings between 400 and 1,000 people to the city for three or four days. Mr. Weidler believes that Daytona is an ideal convention city with its beautiful attractions and large Catholic bureau in which meetings may be held. He thinks that the convention will probably be held here although the question will not be determined until the meeting of the state committee on March 20.

FIND HUMAN GIANT'S TOOTH

Can You Imagine an Ancient Man With Molar That Weighed Two Ounces?

Pittsburg, Kan.—Can you imagine a prehistoric man whose tooth would weigh four ounces, a tooth which would take a wire cable to pull? Such a tooth has been found in a coal bed, more than 600 feet under the ground. The tooth was found about two miles northwest of Pittsburg, in a coal mine. Dentists claim that, because of certain formations, it could be nothing but a grinder from the head of a prehistoric man. While it is light and appears to be bone, it is in a perfect state of petrification.

The prehistoric giant, who had such a tooth, easily could have opened his mouth 12 inches wide. He must have been about 12 feet in height and able to take a six-foot step.

It is practically impossible to determine at what age this man lived, but it must have been many years before the birth of Christ, because of the depth at which the tooth was found. However, it is possible that the molar could have been placed that deep in another earth by an upheaval at some time.

The coal mine in which it was found has been in operation many years and is one of the deepest in the country.

Many persons at first believed the tooth was that of a prehistoric animal rather than of a man. However, it was taken to several dentists, who said that, because of certain formations in the human tooth, which are absent in teeth of animals, the molar must have been that of a prehistoric human being.

KILLS HER INCURABLE PETS

Mrs. Agnes Brasby Buys Dogs and Cats That Are Sick and Nurses Them.

Cleveland—The pastime of Mrs. Agnes Brasby is buying animal pests and chloroforming them. She is not cruel or hardhearted, for it is only sick animals which are put out of their misery.

Mrs. Brasby is a regular customer at all Cleveland animal stores. During the Christmas shopping season she bought two cats and two dogs. She found she couldn't make them well, so she killed them.

"I bought those pets because they were sick and suffering," explained Mrs. Brasby. "I knew they should be killed if I couldn't cure them."

H. K. Ferry, municipal humane agent, says there isn't a greater friend of dumb brutes in Cleveland than Mrs. Brasby. The late string at her home is always out to an unfortunate dog or cat, and children in the neighborhood take their ailing pets there to be cured.

Teeth Marks Save Boy.

New York.—Because he was able to point out a ticket in the box with teeth marks on it, a bundle-laden boy escaped arrest in the subway the other day. The ticket chopper was about to hand him over to a policeman, despite his protest, when the lad managed to prove he had spat his ticket into the receptacle. In the course of the argument untold numbers of other travelers skidded through without putting in their tickets.

Capt. John Mathias Rescued Bound After Two Years Away From Family.

AN EFFORT AT RESCUE FATAL

Chief Officer Led His Men Into Hold of Burning Vessel to Save Imprisoned Stokers of the Laurentic.

New York.—A stirring romance of the sea was told recently when details of the death of Capt. John Mathias, commander of the auxiliary cruiser Laurentic, reached relatives here by mail. The Laurentic is a White Star liner, taken over by the British admiralty.

Only two days from his wife and babies, and on his way home after two years continuous patrolling in the Far East, Captain Mathias died attempting to rescue men trapped in the blazing hold of his ship near the powder magazine.

Flying the homeward bound pennant at the peak, the Laurentic steamed at full speed for port. From coal passers in the stoke hole to officers on the bridge, every man was bent on pushing the cruiser to reach port in time for the holidays.

In a hamlet in Yorkshire Captain Mathias' wife and two young children heard the Laurentic had been ordered to return to her home station. Mrs. Mathias, with her two little girls, aged ten and twelve years, made the trip to Liverpool.

They Discover Fire.

On December 15, within two days run from port, a serious fire was discovered in hold No. 2. With the chief officer at their head a squad of men plunged into the hold to fight the fire. The fire had gained such headway that it was sweeping toward the powder magazines, cutting off their escape.

Signalling frantically to their comrades on the deck, the trapped men succeeded in getting word of their desperate plight to Captain Mathias on the bridge.

Captain Mathias ordered some of his crew to follow him and plunged to the rescue in the smoke filled compartment. The rescue squad succeeded in dragging out some of the imprisoned men and then went back for the rest.

When Captain Mathias was entering the furnacelike hold to rescue the last of his crew an iron beam warped out of place by the intense heat of the blaze, fell on him and his squad of rescuers. Captain Mathias was instantly killed and several of his men were injured. Another squad of seamen removed the injured sailors and succeeded in recovering the body of the captain. The fire was got under control and the cruiser put into Liverpool.

Forbidden to Wireless.

Under admiralty instructions the officers of the ship were not permitted to wireless the news of the accident and fire. With the home-bound pennant still at the fore the Laurentic docked at Liverpool. Mrs. Mathias and her two children waited for the captain, whom they had not seen for two years, to come off the ship. Finally an officer appeared and told them how the captain had sacrificed his life for his men.

Captain Mathias was well known in this port. The Laurentic, his last command, after she finished the Montreal-Liverpool summer service, used to sail from New York on winter cruises to the Mediterranean and the Caribbean seas.

The captain first went to sea because of the lifting he received at the hands of a little Irish girl. He was born in York, County Cork, and at the age of fifteen was keeping company with a fair colleen who lived near the Rushpold docks, Queenstown. One day he declared his intentions to the girl, Molly, by name.

"Thank," she replied, so the story goes, "any time you want your socks darned, a shirt patched or a tear in your breeches mended, you're welcome enough here. But you're only an apprentice and I could never take what you say seriously."

"When I come back I'll be captain of an Atlantic liner," the youth answered hotly.

NO CONTRACT PRISON LABOR

Trustees of Indiana Reform Places Decide to Help Inmates to Make Money.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The contract labor system in Indiana prisons will be abolished. The trustees of the institutions have decided that at the expiration of the present contracts a new form of employment will be instituted.

Under the new system proposed, as much of the product as possible of the inmates of the prisons will be used at other state institutions. The surplus will be sold in the open market. Farm facilities will be increased at all penal institutions. It is probable, too, that the prisoners will be paid small wages for their work, the money to be saved for them or to be used in supporting their families.

The trustees are opposed to the use of prisoners in building highways.

DANCING EXHIBITION A SUCCESSFUL EVENT

In attractive trio, Karl Heinrich, Miss Edith Armstrong and Edward Melville Harris filled the Palmetto clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon, giving a beautifully received program of interpretive, esthetic and imitative folk dancing under the auspices of the Philanthropic department of the club.

With subtle grace and distinctive beauty Mr. Heinrich and Miss Armstrong gave forth their individual talent in several very fine numbers, in duet and solo numbers, expressing in the poetry of dancing the moods and forces of nature, delightfully portrayed to the vivid coloring of the piano accompaniment of Mr. Harris.

The clubhouse was made very lovely by graceful and lacy bamboo stalks which decorated the rooms in abundance. The rooms were filled with enthusiastic onlookers who came to enjoy the heralded skill of the trio.

A substantial sum was realized which will be devoted to the fund of the Philanthropic department.

On Thursday evening the Elks will entertain their friends at a dance in the Elks' home on Volusia avenue for the second time this season. Everybody enjoys dancing, if not in participation, then in the onlooking, but when it is to take place in the Elks home it is surely a pleasure double-fold. Hospitality has also been synonymous of the E. P. O. E. always meant the same of perfection in genuine good time, and the Elks of Daytona are a criterion of generous and bountiful entertainment.

A number of Daytona's prominent ladies and gentlemen have engaged tables for the big charity card party which will be given at the Palmetto clubhouse on Monday evening by the club for the benefit of the Associated Charities of Daytona, Daytona Beach, Seabreeze, Holly Hill and Kingston. There are still more tables to be had and these can be arranged for at Hawkins' drug store.

Mrs. Charles E. Starr entertained Joseph Kendall of Jacksonville and Harry Palmer of Astor, Ohio, at a pretty luncheon at her home, 1404 Tuesday in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lella Merrill of Astoria, Ore. who is spending the winter here.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA, March 13.—James Rayburn, who was a guest at the Toronita hotel, is making a short visit to Titusville, but will return the last of the week.

Mrs. Clara Brown, of Youngstown, Ohio, who spent several weeks at the Toronita hotel, with her charming daughter, Miss Marjorie Brown, has also purchased a building lot at Wilbur-by-the-Sea. Mrs. Brown and her daughter made many friends while here, who will be pleased to hear that they will return.

Among the recent registrations at the Toronita hotel are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Furry; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Gheen, Miss Nellie Carter, Miss Mary A. Dunbar and Elsa L. Rudolph, New York; H. Rudolph, New York; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wheeler, Oak Park, Ill.; Mrs. C. L. Burpee, Denver, Col.

Dr. and Mrs. Blake, Miss Rachel Blake, Mrs. Emmons and her daughter, Cornelia Emmons, made a pleasant trip to Spruce Creek Monday, where several alligators were seen. Mrs. Emmons has travelled extensively, both abroad as well as throughout the United States, but declares she has never visited a place that possesses the natural beauties which abound there.

Miss Schofield and Miss Fell will address the people of Wilbur-by-the-Sea on Wednesday afternoon, on their personal experiences in France. These interesting ladies are personal friends of Mrs. Larz Anderson, who is being entertained at the Toronita hotel. Interest is being shown in this affair.

The W. I. S. H. met at the home of Mrs. F. S. Bryant on Tuesday where they were delightfully entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Theirs entertained Mrs. Maude Dennis, of Port Huron, Mich. Mrs. Dennis is the owner of the nurses' home at Port Huron.

Fishing at Wilbur-by-the-Sea never was better, and of late they are much larger than usual, much to the delight of the anglers.

Among the most notable visitors to Daytona this season is William R. Conrad, assistant treasurer of the Carnegie Steel company, of Pittsburgh, who, with Mrs. Conrad, is a guest at the Prince George hotel. Mr. Conrad's interesting personality is a power in the financial world of Pennsylvania.

The Prince George is unusually popular with Cleveland, Ohio, visitors this season. Although many of the congenial contingents have been broken up during the past week by departures, the Cleveland coterie is still one of the largest at the hotel. Late additions are Miss M. Sacket and Miss A. Barclay.

The foyer and sun parlors of the Seaside Inn were filled to capacity Monday night with card tables for bridge and billiards. The attractive spring frocks worn by the feminine contingent interspersed with the white flannels of the men made the scene a strikingly pretty one. When scores were counted after two hours of play, the bridge prize, a silver corkscrew, was awarded to W. C. Ellis, of Paducah, Ky., and the billiard prize, a pretty cut glass cold cream jar, was given to Mrs. R. H. Stearns, of New York City.

Hubby's Explanations Valuable.
Mrs. Fry—I don't see how you can tolerate a husband who stays out every night. Why don't you divorce him?
Mrs. Sharp—I would, my dear, but you have no idea what dandy movie scenarios his explanations make. I sell every one of them.—Judge.

Conceded.
"Van Hise," the motor, seems to be growing a little deaf. I wonder what caused it? "I'm sure I don't know," but he claims it is the result of constant applause.

SON BORN IN FAMILY IN WHICH GIRLS PREVAIL

A visit of the stork which escaped earlier mention and which will be of special interest to many of the regular residents of Daytona and vicinity occurred Sunday when the great bird presented Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Maley, of 524 South Palmetto avenue, with a fine, nine-pound baby boy, Mrs. Maley and the baby are at Dr. Klock's hospital and both are reported to be doing well. Mr. Maley will receive congratulations on his return to the city, being away on a cruise on one of the McCoy Brothers' boats. Mr. and Mrs. Maley have another child, a daughter about 12 years of age, who are at a premium in the generation of the Maley family. Mr. Maley's brothers are married and have children. In all cases they are glad to see Mr. Maley at present but are of possessing the only child of the generation of the Maley family.

FUND FOR BELGIAN CHILDREN STARTED IN THIS VICINITY

APPEAL SIGNED BY FOREMOST MEN OF DAYTONA AND SURROUNDING TOWNS ALREADY GETS SUBSTANTIAL ANSWERS.

A thorough and businesslike movement is now being made in Daytona, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze, to raise funds for starving Belgian children, and the three banks in this vicinity have been made stations where subscriptions may be presented.

This movement is supported by all of the largest business men and other prominent people of this locality.

The printed appeal which has been placed before the public tells that the purpose of the movement is to give the 1,250,000 Belgian children enough to eat every day. At present each of these children is dependent on the American Commission for Relief in Belgium and the funds in the hands of the commission allow the expenditure of six cents a day for each child. This sum purchases a portion of bread and a bowl of broth once a day for each child. With the new efforts it is hoped to furnish three cents more a day per child in order to give them the additional ration of a cup of cocoa and a biscuit.

Already the commission has received thousands of letters from Belgian children, whose suffering has already been alleviated to some measure.

This movement is akin to others in progress all over the United States and the work which is being done is admirable and worthy of aid in every respect. One well known publishing company in this country has already raised $250,000 for the cause.

The following men have signed the appeal:

Charles Frederic Goss, Henry C. Rowe, Burton W. Rogers, Laurence Thompson, L. H. Rowe & Co., Robert McKay, William E. Blodgett, E. M. Condit, T. E. Fitzgerald, Mrs. C. G. Burgoyne, Mrs. M. Huston, Margaret Rhodes, Fred J. Walter, H. K. Brainard, Joseph M. Rogers, B. Foster, Wm. J. Drew, John Treadwell, Theo. Sengstack, F. N. Conrad, W. W. Marshall, James N. Gamble, E. L. King, H. E. Pence, H. C. Sparkman, Edward C. Atwood, Joseph Guerin, Jacob H. Hary, J. W. Stoneman, J. C. Schmaderke, E. R. Dusenberry, H. H. Windsor.

Checks for subscription should be made payable to the Belgian Children's fund, Daytona, Fla., and be presented to F. N. Conrad, of the Merchant's bank, W. E. Sullivan, of the First National bank, or C. A. Randall, of the East Coast State bank.

Although the appeal has just been issued the following subscriptions have already been handed in:

Henry C. Rowe	$50.00
Burton W. Rogers	120.00
Mrs. C. G. Burgoyne	100.00
J. C. Schmaderke	100.00
East Coast State bank	10.00
Rev. Charles F. Goss	10.00
Joseph M. Rogers	10.00
B. Foster	10.00
L. H. Rowe & Co.	10.00
Dr. Fred J. Walters	5.00
Mrs. M. Huston	2.00

Foolish Maidens.

Two Pittsfield, Mass., young women walked into the Lanesboro cemetery the other night to the tomb of Josh Billings. Each then extended a forefinger and touched the tombstone, one exclaiming "Josh" and the other "Billings" as they did so. Asked why they did this, one of them said they hoped to attain the coveted sense of humor which Josh possessed to a remarkable degree.

Vision and Headache.

A recent study of this subject has brought out evidence that people of one-eyed, monocular vision are not troubled with eye headache. Whether one eye be disabled or whether its use has simply been abandoned, either constantly or alternately, the fact that seeing is done wholly by one eye eliminates the struggle to make two unequal eyes work in perfect unison. Freed from the strain of that struggle, the subject finds that the reflex influence upon the cranial nerves is no longer a matter of pain.

AMERICA'S EXACT WAR STATUS TO BE SHOWN IN MOVIES

ARCADE TO SHOW "GUARDING OLD GLORY" SATURDAY—IS OFFICIAL PICTURE OF THE ARMY AND NAVY.

The Arcade theatre has just booked for Saturday the great five-reel picture "Guarding Old Glory," the patriotic feature that was taken by the official photographers of the United States army and navy for government purposes, but later released for public exhibition so as to let all know just what condition Uncle Sam really is in to defend himself. America's fighting men are shown on land, on sea, in air and under sea. America's big guns, little guns, submarines, aeroplanes, battleships and artillery all perform for you as they would in case of war with any foreign power. It is an especially timely picture, owing to the pending crisis and every true American owes it to himself to see the truth about "Defenseless America."

In this picture are shown the actual scenes of the American occupation of Vera Cruz, the landing, fighting and bombardment. The highest army and navy officials and the cabinet officers all come on the screen and pose so that one may see the personnel of the big men on the firing line. All the leaders of the country have pronounced this picture the greatest ever released for public view on the great momentous question "Is America Ready?" The picture really answers the story.

Julien Presnauer, the business manager of the picture, now in Daytona, at the Hamilton hotel, acting in accordance with wishes of certain dignitaries in Washington, has invited all veterans of the Confederate local camps to be the guests of his company and the Arcade on Saturday so that they may see how modern warfare differs from that of the days of '61.

Early French Lighthouse.

One of the most beautiful of the early lighthouses, and the first tower in a sea-swept position, was Cordouan light, on the coast of France at the entrance to the River Gironde. It was built in 1611, and although it has been remodeled, some of the original structure is still there, more than two hundred feet high.

Never Fazed Him.

"This is the last time I shall bring this bill," said the enraged collector. "Thanks," replied the impecunious debtor. "You are so much more considerate than the other fellow," he said he was going to come again!—Boston Transcript.
